

When people become dependent on generative artificial intelligence, they lose their ability to think critically, learn, and gather knowledge. They undermine their creativity, wit, and esprit, their genuine inspiration and inventiveness. Defend humanity against this loss. Refuse to use AI tools for your intellectual tasks. Use these stickers to make a statement.

